Silicone Carving Blocks

Contoured & Rectangular

Sometimes the implant that makes the most sense for a patient may need to be tailored, for example, to fill a uniquely shaped defect or to more closely mimic a body part.

For such cases, Implantech offers a variety of solid-silicone carving blocks in different shapes, sizes and durometers (or, hardnesses).

The Latest Techniques

Facial & Body-Contouring Implants

HANDS-ON CADAVER LAB

Las Vegas • June 12-13, 2021

MASTERS EDUCATIONAL SERIES

It's a brand new year, and we've scheduled one of our popular Las Vegas workshops for the weekend of June 12-13.

In a state-of-the-art cadaver lab, leading experts provide you with the latest surgical techniques using facial and body-contouring implants.

Your Esteemed Faculty

DAY 1

William Binder
MD, FACS

DAYS 1 & 2

Barry L. Eppley
MD, DMD

Rady Rahban
MD, FACS

Robert J. Troell
MD, FACS

Combining classroom with cadaver lab instruction, your faculty will show you how to achieve predictable and long-lasting aesthetic results.

Contoured Silicone Carving Blocks

All of our contoured (pre-formed) carving blocks are clear and smooth, with the longer styles in an extra-soft durometer and the ovate styles in both extra-soft and extra-extra-soft.

Implantech's rectangular carving blocks are available in clear, opaque and fleshtone colors and in five durometers ranging from very soft to very firm.

Rectangular Silicone Carving Blocks

Contact Implantech for more about our silicone carving blocks or any of our outstanding product lines.
